DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

- 1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:
 - The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.
- 2. Claims 1-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The present invention describes a device comprising of a ground pad Vss connected to a p+ region. There is no support for a device consisting of the limitations as recited in claims 1 and 8. That is, there is no support for a device which does not include a ground pad Vss connected to a p+ region.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 14-20 are allowed.

Reasons for allowance

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Voogel (5,959,821), Yu (5,742,085) and Amerasekera appear to be the closest prior art reference. Voogel, Yu and Amerasekera teach substantially the entire claimed structure, as recited in claim 14, except a device consisting of the claimed limitations.

Therefore, prior art do not teach or render obviousness the semiconductor structure, as claimed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-20 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection, and the allowance of claims 14-20
